1,500 m2 built farmhouse, dating from the seventeenth century fortified tower of the fifteenth century. Barcelones

1,500 m2 built farmhouse, dating from the seventeenth century fortified tower of the fifteenth century. It is believed that its origin is Roman.

The house is spread over three floors.

Ground floor: large entrance hall, a double bedroom, bathroom, original farmhouse kitchen with large fireplace and oven, large living and dining room with marble fireplace overlooking the garden, elevator, large bright library with vaulted ceilings. Kitchen, office, dining room, several outbuildings and tooling services.

First floor: Distribution hall, to the right as access find a room called the Bishop, from this there is access to the tower through a small covered bridge, which in turn through a spiral staircase gives access the two remaining rooms.

To the left of the hall floor has a large suite with bathroom, two double rooms sharing bathroom, all with access to terrace that encircles the plant.
