Extraordinary masia of 3,000 m2 on three buildings.

Extraordinary masia of 3.000 m2 on three buildings. Dating from the year 1680, we observe on the main entrance a stone that indicates it has been renovated on the year 1773.

He's eighty five hectares of land between fields and woods. The farm consists of three buildings, the main house Masia, the guard house and stables of stud bulls.

La Masia, main house.

Structurally consolidated and covers remade a few years ago. Pending distribution of interior finishes and parts of the upper floors. The house features a walled perimeter structure, typical of old farmhouses that were used as defense against possible attacks of bandits.

It is divided into three floors.

Ground floor: Entrance hall with vault, right entering we find a lounge with vault that gives access to a large library with fireplace, very bright and with coffered ceiling.
